Our Journey

Our journey began in 2013 when Alltogether Care was formed by my family who had over 20 years' experience in Care and Finance. I joined, later that year having an HR & Management background. Together we had one common goal and that was to deliver a support service that would not only allow people to remain in their own home but make their life better by going that extra mile for every single person we supported.

Alltogether, we created a plan on how this company could be different.

Our journey started by supporting elderly people, then adults with sensory and physical disabilities and lastly adults with learning disabilities. We have had the privilege of making life changing differences to many service users lives.

We created our PEOPLE, PRIDE and PASSION values in simple terms because we care about the people we support; we have pride in our staff and the services they deliver, and we are passionate about the support we provide and strive to be the best at what we do.

Every day for us is a learning day as we continue to “think outside the box” to create a team that gives outstanding care and support.

Lets start your journey, Alltogether.

Your Care Journey

At Alltogether Care Services we are passionate about delivering high quality care and support services.

Care in Your Own Home

Are you finding your daily routine is becoming more difficult to manage on your own? You may benefit from some extra help.

Some examples of how we can support you are:

- Assist with your personal care needs
- Support with your medication
- Support with preparing your meals
- Help you with your household tasks
- Support with specialised care needs such as stoma, catheter care

Companionship

Perhaps you may be living on your own, you don't get to see your family often or have recently lost someone close to you. A companionship service may be the right fit for you.

We can support with:

- Hobbies, activities and appointments
- Getting out and about including helping with weekly shops
- Attending social clubs and events
- General housework including washing and ironing
- Feeding your pets
- Overnight care or a short break

Mum uses Alltogether Care Services for social support. She has visits twice a week from the staff who are always friendly and listen to Mum's concerns and wishes. They take time to get to know her and try to ensure their visits give Mum the best possible service. They encourage her to do tasks that she enjoys and Mum always has a smile and seems happier after her visits.

Your Care Journey

At Alltogether Care Services we are passionate about delivering high quality care and support services.

Respite

Respite can provide a temporary break from some of the challenges faced by a family carer, giving them an opportunity to take some time away to relax and recharge. We provide flexible and responsive support for individuals and their families.

We can support with:

- Giving your family member/carer some time to themselves
- Emergency cover for a family member/carer
- Support when leaving hospital for a short period of time
- Companionship support
- Overnight care or a short break
- Specialist care

Specialist Care

Our range of specialist care services ensures your specific needs are met.

Examples of our specialist care are:

- Dementia including Alzheimer's
- Parkinson's
- Brain Injury
- Stoma/Catheter
- Palliative or End of Life
- Motor neurone's Disease
- Complex care

This company has been looking after my grandparents now for about a year. We went through three other local companies in Bearsden, I just was not happy with the standards. When my parents passed away my grandparents took me in, now it's my turn to look after them. they deserve the best.

This company came recommended. The difference has been night and day, they treat my grandparents like they are their own family, even the small things like putting on the washing and then hanging it up. My grandad wears hearing aids and they were forever forgotten before. Now he feels like a new man, showered every morning, aids in and is set for the day.

Self Directed Support (SDS)

Self-directed support (SDS) is the name given to the way people receive support from their local authority to live as independently as possible within their community. Everyone in Scotland who needs social care services or support is eligible. This includes children, adults and unpaid carers.

It is a personalised way of organising people's support to give them as much choice, control and flexibility as they want.

There are four different options to choose from when accessing SDS. Each option comes under the 'umbrella' of Self-directed Support.

- Option 1 within SDS is also known as a 'Direct Payment' and comes with the most responsibility. This is when you receive and manage a budget to meet your needs
- Option 2 is sometimes called an Individual Service Fund. It allows you to choose which agency you want to provide your support
- Option 3 The local authority decide the support you receive. This is the traditional way support was provided before SDS
- Option 4 This is a mix of any of the other 3 options

To be eligible for SDS, you must either require support with daily living tasks or be an unpaid carer who meets the threshold for support.

How do I apply for SDS?

- Contact your Local Authority for assessment
- Complete your assessment
- Receive your funding
- TALK TO US and start your care journey

If you are currently in receipt of any of the above SDS Options it is your CHOICE to CHOOSE us!
